TRIANGLE ASSOCIATION

Contributors who gave $500 to $999 are designated members of the Triangle Association.

*When the original Jewett Hall burned in 1888 and the tower bell was destroyed, Uncle Abe, who worked under eleven presidents from 1852 and 1924, would summon the girls to meals and classes with his triangle. "As he sounded the triangle, his body would sway to the rhythm of his beating while his face suggested a high priest performing some joyous ceremonial rite. Louise Manly said of his ringing, 'His playing on the triangle is in perfect time and so jolly that it almost sets one to dancing.'...Uncle Abe died on February 9, 1924, just as the triangle was ringing for breakfast...his life left the message: 'Be faithful; be true; do your best for God and man.'" When Jewett Hall was destroyed by fire in 1947, the triangle was saved by "Long John", successor to Uncle Abe.
