Generations of Giving

J U D S O N  C O L L E G E
Thanks so much for your financial support of Judson College! Your gifts undergird the work of the College and her mission of Christian higher education especially for women.

The celebration of Judson’s 175th anniversary provided wonderful opportunities to reflect upon the College’s history, as well as her future. During this remarkable year, we were mindful of those who came before us—those whose commitment and sacrifice established the college.

Your support keeps the institution that gives substance to the dreams and ambitions of students such as Sau Nam, ’14, who has completed her degree and returned to her home country of Myanmar (Burma) where she serves as Librarian for the Kachin Theological College and Seminary. Ja Htoi, ’18, also from Myanmar, is studying English/Language Arts to become a teacher to her people. Maggie Ingram, ’14, Biology and Chemistry, who pursues the Doctor of Veterinary Medicine program at Auburn University. Kim Johnson, ’14, Chemistry and Religious Studies, who enrolls in the Master of Divinity program at Duke University. Kim Smith, ’14, Elementary Education, is serving as a teacher and missionary in Ecuador. And, Riley Tunnell, ’14, Chemistry and Biology, enrolled directly into the PhD program in Biology at the University of Alabama.

Thank you for faithfully running the race that keeps Judson for future generations. The baton is in our hands. May we continue to be found faithful!

Sincerely,

David E. Potts
President

Many employers will match gifts to Judson College, often at a two or three to one ratio. Special appreciation is due those who make the most of matching gifts on behalf of Judson College. Matching gifts from a donor’s employer are included when determining the level of donor recognition.
Judson College is grateful to the following donors for their gifts to the college. Recognition of annual gifts is based on the college’s most recent fiscal year, which is from July 1, 2013 through June 30, 2014.

President’s Association

Contributors who gave $10,000 and up are designated members of the President’s Association.

Since 1838, twenty-two gentlemen have served as President of Judson College with honor and dedication. Collectively, they prevailed through the challenges of war, depression, and recession to triumph in recovery, growth, and evolution to provide a Christian education for the modern woman.

“The cameo logo, identifying symbol of Judson College (1974-1997) was designed by Leslie L. Yarbrough. The classic cameo profile, enclosed by the Old English “J,” symbolizes the link between the classic ideal of womanhood and the outgoing achievements of women. The logo was first introduced the winter of 1974 by the Judson College Cameo, a Bulletin of Judson College. “From The Story of Judson College in Needlepoint sponsored by the Judson College Alumnae Association.”

Triangle Association

Contributors who gave $500 to $999 are designated members of the Triangle Association.

When the original Jewett Hall burned in 1898 and the tower bell was destroyed, Uncle Abe, who worked under eleven presidents from 1852 to 1924, would summon the girls to meals and classes with his triangle. “As he sounded the triangle, his body would sway to the rhythm of his beating while his face suggested a high priest performing some joyous ceremonial rite. Louise Manly said of his ringing, ‘His playing on the triangle is in perfect time and so jolly that it almost sets one to dancing...Uncle Abe died on February 9, 1924, just as the triangle was ringing for breakfast...his life left the message: ‘Be faithful; be true; do your best for God and man.’” When Jewett Hall was destroyed by fire in 1947, the triangle was saved by “Long John”, successor to Uncle Abe. JUDSON COLLEGE / 2014 Honor Roll of Giving Numerous friends of Judson gave generously to make this amazing opportunity possible. Additionally, students worked diligently to raise funds to participate in this outstanding event.

The concert and trip was organized and directed by Dr. Terre Johnson, Judson’s interim Choral Director. In 2005, after spending several years as a conductor in New York, with regular engagements in Carnegie Hall, Johnson came to Birmingham to serve as Minister of Music at Vestavia Hills Baptist Church. In 2012, Johnson joined Judson part-time to teach in the college’s music department. It was at this time he received the invitation to give a concert in New York in 2014 at Carnegie Hall. “With the support of Judson’s President, Dr. David Potts, that dream became a reality,” Johnson said.

Johnson composed a 30-minute piece entitled “Missa Femina,” that was performed during the concert. The composition is a sacred work utilizing the words from the Old Testament. The piece called for a large chorus of women’s voices, a soprano soloist and an orchestra.

Under the direction of Dr. Johnson, Judson Singers sang several selections, including “Missa Femina”. Singing before an audience of 2,000, Judson’s choir joined other female choirs who were conducted by world renowned composer John Rutter. “This singular opportunity is a part of what makes a Judson education so unique and special,” said Johnson.

Judson’s students spent five days in New York, culminating in the May 26th concert at Carnegie Hall. While in New York, students enjoyed a thrilling performance of “The Phantom of the Opera.” They took a walking tour of midtown Manhattan, to see the Rockefeller Center, St. Patrick’s Cathedral, the Plaza Hotel, Carnegie Hall and Times Square, as well as to ride on the subway. Students also visited a variety of churches, the 9/11 Memorial, and the Observatory of the Empire State Building.

After the concert, students and faculty were driven to Chelsea Pier for a midnight celebration cruise around Manhattan. The long trip home included laughter and storytelling; students were busy all summer posting pictures and stories about New York on their Facebook pages.

According to Johnson, the Judson Singers had an unforgettable life-changing experience. “These Judson Singers will never be the same, and they have set the stage for greater accomplishments to come in the Judson College Music Department,” said Johnson.
Mother Judson, Alma Mater,
We have seen thy gracious light,
Like a beacon on the hilltop,
Burning brightly thru the night,
Guiding, cheering by its radiance,
Shining far o’er land and sea.
Mother Judson, Alma Mater,
We would aye be led by thee.
