

JUDSON COLLEGE

2019 – 2020

ACADEMIC YEAR

FINANCIAL POLICIES

Every effort is made to contain costs while providing a quality Judson experience. With the support of the Alabama Baptist State Convention and contributions from alumnae, businesses, foundations, individuals, and investment income from Judson's endowment, tuition and fees are kept considerably below the national average for private colleges and universities.

Judson College is an Equal Opportunity Institution and does not unlawfully discriminate in its educational and employment policies on the basis of race, color, sex, age, disability, or national or ethnic origin.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The College reserves the right to modify its financial policies and to adjust charges for tuition, fees, room and board at any time.

INSURANCE

Students are required to provide proof of medical/accident insurance or to purchase coverage. Student athletes' coverage must include athletic injuries.

DAMAGES

Residence Hall inspections occur at the beginning and at the conclusion of each term. Students will be assessed for damages to their rooms or furnishings.

TERMS OF PAYMENT

All student charges are payable on or before Validation Day for each term for on campus students and before classes begin for distance learning students. Payments are accepted in the form of cash, check, credit or debit card. Students expecting financial aid must have a processed and verified Student Aid Award Letter. Students expecting loans or payments from outside sources must present appropriate documents by the deadlines available from the Financial Aid Office. Checks should be made payable to Judson College and mailed to the Business Office, 302 Bibb Street, Marion, AL 36756.

Failure of a student to meet financial obligations by the due date will subject the student to withdrawal from classes, suspension of campus housing, dining hall privileges, student activities and athletic participation, ineligibility to graduate or receive grades, transcripts or future deferments, late payment fees and referral of the delinquent account to a collection agency. Accounts referred to a collection agency are subject to reasonable collection agency fees and reasonable attorney fees and other costs and charges necessary for the collection of any amount not paid when due.

DEFERMENT OF EXPENSES FOR TRADITIONAL STUDENTS ONLY

Students who meet the following eligibility requirements may defer a portion of the current semester charges for tuition, fees, room and board.

1. All prior semester charges must be paid in full.
2. At least one-half of the remaining balance after all financial aid has been applied must be paid before classes begin.
3. An agreement form must be signed by the student and parent or guardian.
4. The deferred balance must be paid within 30 days of the beginning of each term.
5. Failure to comply with the deferment deadline will subject the student to the above mentioned penalties.

0% Refund for Distance Learning Terms FADL2, SPDL2, SU1, & SU2

Refunds are based on the actual date the withdrawal procedure is officially completed. There are no refunds of fees except course fees, and even then, only if course is dropped by Drop/Add Day. All refunds will be made by check. Regarding adjustments of Federal, State and Institutional financial aid, contact the Financial Aid office. Scholarships, grants, and loans that are funded through sources other than the college are placed on the student's account as "pending" until the funds are received. Credit balances cannot be refunded to the student until the pending funds are actually received.
