JUDSON
COLLEGE

Letter from Dr. Tew

Every morning as Ann and I are greeted by the sun rising in the Tiffany Window of the Zadie Ellis Ashcraft Memorial President's Home and Gardens we are reminded of the truth of God's word. "The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is thy faithfulness" (Lamentations 3:22-23).

One vital expression of God's faithfulness is the generous support the Alumnae and Friends of Judson College have provided over the course of this last fiscal year. Without the consistent and often sacrificial contributions of so many wonderful people, your College would not be the treasured place that it is.

As you read through the lists contained in this publication I hope you will join me in offering up prayers of thanksgiving to our heavenly Father for all He has made possible for Judson through each person listed.

Thank you for your support of Judson, now and in the future.

Sincerely,

W. Mark Tew
President

Honor Roll of Giving

Since Judson College's founding in 1838, gifts from individuals and organizations have played a crucial role in the development of the College. Throughout the years, the support of alumnae and friends has enabled the College to meet the opportunities of changing times, changing technologies, and an increasingly diverse student body with agility and grace.

The College wishes to express heartfelt thanks to those whose outstanding, consistent support sustains and empowers the College to continue its 182-year-old mission of providing an exceptional, transformational, Christ-centered education for each new generation of Judson women—for the glory of God and the good of the world.

The Honor Roll of Giving acknowledges gifts to the College during the 2019-20 fiscal year (July 1, 2019 through May 30, 2020).

Judson College
2019-20

The Founders' Circle

Judson's founders believed that education for women provided them with the opportunity to discover and develop their God-given intelligence and talents, which resulted in the responsibility to use their awakened minds and hearts to make choices that glorified God and benefited society. The founders chose to name their school The Judson Female Institute after Ann Hasseltine Judson, the first American woman to serve as a foreign missionary, whose life they believed embodied these principles better than any other woman of their time.

Julia T. Barron Society

Contributors with lifetime giving of $1 million and up are designated members of the Julia T. Barron Society.

Julia Tarrant Barron was a wealthy widowed businesswoman at the center of discussions to establish a Baptist school for young women in Marion, Alabama, in the 1830s. Barron provided space in a rented house for the first classes of the Judson Female Institute (which would later become Judson College) in January of 1839, and it is also believed that she gave the land for the first Judson building. Barron was the major contributor to this building fund, with a gift that was used to build the first Jewett Hall in 1839. Though Barron had no daughters who would benefit from the college she supported so ardently, her selfless generosity has influenced the lives of thousands of young women for more than 181 years.

Milo P. Jewett Society

Contributors with lifetime giving of $250,000 - $999,999 are designated members of the Milo P. Jewett Society.

Milo P. Jewett was the first president of the Judson Female Institute, which opened its doors January 7, 1839. Jewett, a recent graduate of Andover Theological Seminary, had moved to Alabama with the goal of establishing a school for young women that would provide them with the same quality of education that young men received at Harvard and Yale. Jewett firmly believed that this new college should be "a place of Christ", so he worked with local Baptists in Marion to establish a school that not only educated women well but also equipped them to glorify God with their lives.

The Founders' Circle

Edwin D. King Society

Contributors with lifetime giving of $100,000 - $249,999 are designated members of the Edwin D. King Society.

General Edwin D. King served as Captain during the War of 1812 and came to Perry County in 1816. As a successful planter, King helped to establish the town of Marion. He was a charter member of Siloam Baptist Church and was an Alabama representative in the 1845 formation of the Southern Baptist Convention. He was a founder of the Marion Female Seminary, Judson College, and Howard College. He served as chairman of the Judson College Board of Trustees for twenty-four years.

James H. DeVotie Society

Contributors with lifetime giving of $50,000 - $99,999 are designated members of the James H. DeVotie Society.

James DeVotie was instrumental in connecting Milo P. Jewett to the other Judson founders, after receiving a letter from Julia Barron expressing the interest of a group of Baptists in founding a school for girls in Marion. When Jewett arrived in Alabama in 1838, DeVotie (who at the time was serving as pastor of First Baptist Church of Tuscaloosa) and Basil Manly (president of The University of Alabama), met with Jewett and Edwin D. King in Tuscaloosa. DeVotie and Manly sent letters of support for Jewett to Julia Barron, and the "founders' circle" was complete. DeVotie later served as pastor of Siloam Baptist Church in Marion from 1840 to 1855.

Annual Giving

Judson College is grateful to the following donors for their gifts to the College. Recognition of annual gifts is based on the College's most recent fiscal year, which is from July 1, 2019 through May 30, 2020. (Consecutive Years of Giving)

PRESIDENT'S ASSOCIATION

Contributors who gave $10,000 and up are designated members of the President's Association.

Since 1838, twenty-three Presidents have served Judson College with honor and dedication. Collectively, they led the College through the challenges of war, depression, and recession to triumph in recovery, growth, and evolution to continue to provide Christian higher education especially for women.

The Cameo J logo was the identifying symbol of Judson College from 1974 to 1997. Designed by Leslie L. Yarbrough, the logo was first introduced in the winter 1974 edition of the Judson Cameo, a bulletin of Judson College. The classic cameo profile, enclosed by an Old English "J", symbolizes the link between the classic ideal of womanhood and the outstanding achievements of the modern woman.

TRIANGLE ASSOCIATION

Contributors who gave $500 to $999 are designated members of the Triangle Association.

When the original Jewett Hall burned in 1888, its tower bell was destroyed, and Abe McCliney, an African-American janitor and head-waiter known to Judson girls as "Uncle Abe" began summoning Judson students to meals and classes by ringing a large triangle. His ringing became an iconic sound on Judson's campus for the next 36 years. Historian Louise Manly wrote of Abe's playing: "There is no big bell in a cupola to call us up,... but a large triangle is carried around through the long halls and vigorously played by Abe for fifteen minutes, and that wakes us up indeed... His playing on the triangle is in perfect time and so jolly that it almost sets one to dancing." Abe served under eleven Judson presidents from 1852 until his retirement in 1923. In 1924, the Judson student newspaper, now in its 96th year, was first published, taking "The Triangle" as its name. Abe's triangle was saved from the second Jewett fire in 1947 and is still a beloved icon on Judson's campus.

Changes to the Donor Giving Recognitions

Early in 2020, The Office of Development and Alumnae began to evaluate the donor stewardship and recognition program that has been in place for several years. From this evaluation, the need to have a more robust recognition program for the monthly giving clubs, annual giving and lifetime giving societies was identified. The College is excited to announce the following enhancements to the donor recognition program. These giving clubs and societies will be used beginning with the current fiscal year ending May 31, 2021.

The Monthly Giving Clubs now have five levels. The additional four clubs were created in order to recognize and honor our alumnae and friends who have chosen to give to Judson beyond "The 1838 Club" level.

The 1838 Club: Total monthly gifts made in the range of $18.38 – $49
The Heritage Club: Total monthly gifts made in the range of $50 – $99
The Century Club: Total monthly gifts made in the range of $100 – $249
The Rose Arbor Club: Total monthly gifts made in the range of $250 – $499
The Jewett Dome Club: Total monthly gifts made in the range of $500 and up

Enrollment in these monthly giving clubs is automatic when a donor begins giving on a monthly basis at the level they choose. Judson will continue to recognize all of our Monthly Giving Donors in the annual Honor Roll of Giving as well as with the appropriate club ribbon during J-Day weekend and other special events on campus.

The Annual Giving Clubs also had additional giving levels added to it.

President's Society – $50,000 and up
Senior Oak Society – $25,000 to $49,999
Wishing Well Society – $20,000 to $24,999
Rosy Goblet Society – $15,000 to $19,999
Cameo Society – $10,000 to $14,999
Triangle Society – $7,500 to $9,999
Rose Society – $5,000 to $7,499
Clubhouse Society – $2,500 to $4,999
Ivy Society – $1,000 to $2,499
Eagle Society – $750 to $999
Loyalty Society – $500 to $749
Onyx Society – $250 to $499
Friends Society – $1 to $249

The Lifetime Giving Societies have also been restructured to offer two additional levels of recognition:

Ann Hasseltine Judson Society – $1,000,000 and up
Milo P. Jewett Society – $750,000 to $999,999
Edwin D. King Society – $500,000 to $749,999
J.I. Riddle Society – $250,000 to $499,999
Lux et Veritas Society – $100,000 to $249,999
Cornerstone Society – $50,000 to $99,999

The College has also rebranded the planned giving society from The Covenant Society to The Julia Tarrant Barron Legacy Society. Members of the former Covenant Society are automatically members of this new society. Going forward, donors who notify Judson that they have included the College as a beneficiary in their estate plans will be listed as members of the Julia Barron Tarrant Legacy Society.

Alabama Judson Car Tag Program

If you are an Alabama resident, you can purchase a Judson license plate at your county tag office.

If you have already purchased a Judson license plate, thank you! The State of Alabama does not provide us with a list of each individual who registers a Judson College specialty license plate.

So that we may thank you and update our records, please take a moment to let us know if you have registered your car with a Judson specialty license plate. In addition, we will send you a gift acknowledgement for the portion of your specialty license plate fee that is tax-deductible.

To receive your gift acknowledgement, please e-mail a copy of your registration receipt to the Office of Development at pdarby@judson.edu, or mail a copy to the address below.
