CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION

Judson College students are expected to maintain a high standard of personal conduct that will favorably reflect upon themselves, the Judson community, and the purpose for which the College was founded. I understand and agree that, upon admission to Judson College, I will be subject to maintaining this standard and will be subject to all the policies and regulations of the College. I certify that all items of this application are answered correctly and completely. I understand that providing false or incomplete answers may disqualify me from admission to or terminate my enrollment at Judson College. I understand that it is my responsibility to notify Judson College promptly if there is any change in this information prior to my enrollment at Judson College. I further give my high school or college permission to release my official transcripts to Judson College. Judson College complies with applicable laws prohibiting discrimination, including Title VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Executive Order 11246, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1972/3, the Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and does not unlawfully discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, disability, or veteran status in admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its programs or services. Only women are eligible for admission to the campus-based program. Both males and females may apply for admission to Judson’s online program.
